

THE NEW END

Once upon a time, a little girl named Miniashi Jerosh was kidnapped by a magic strange person. Miniashi felt really scared, but the guy calmed her down and explained that his intention was to give her powers, good powers to learn about the future, but the question was why he was going to give these powers to a little girl.

The man had seen something in her, something special. He told her that 10 years from then, she was going to save the world.

Meanwhile, Miniashi's parents were calling 911. They were really scared. When the police found her, they arrested the guy and Miniashi stayed quiet and confused. Her dad hugged her and took her home. Miniashi didn't feel anything new, but the man had told her that she was going to receive the powers.

Ten years later, Miniashi entered secondary school. She met new friends and especially a boy named Michael. They became very good friends almost immediately. Miniashi told Michael the strange story of the magic man. Michael also told her the story of a natural disaster that had changed his life. Miniashi and Michael helped each other with their crazy stories. Michael really wanted Miniashi to discover her powers, so he recommended her to meet with the strange man one more time.

Following Michael's advice, Miniashi went to the prison to talk to this strange man one more time. She asked him how she could discover the powers that he had promised her. She also asked him why she had been chosen to receive those powers. The man didn't answer the questions, but told her one thing: "you need to find the answers by yourself".

Miniashi was 14 years old. She was a young girl. How was she supposed to know how to discover and control these powers on her own? Why was she supposed to save the world? She wanted answers, so she went to see the man one more time. She commanded him to tell her about her powers, but the man didn't want to speak. Miniashi got really upset. She was so angry that her mind exploded. Little sparks came out of her body, her eyes turned white and she started to fly.

The man smiled and told her: "those are your powers". He told her to use them carefully. "If you use them for fun, you will die, but if you use them correctly you can save the world," said the man.

Miniashi tried to calm down. She was really scared about what had happened, so she ran away from the jail where the man was. She cried and thought "why me? why do I need to save the world?"

In that moment, the floor began to shake and the trees fell. The police and the prisoners got out of the prison all the people started screaming. The radio announced that a nuclear bomb had exploded in the middle of the sea. This had caused a huge earthquake in all the planet which, eventually, produced huge tsunamis all over the world.

Miniashi didn't feel well, she fainted and that's when her powers started to work. Unconscious, as she was, Miniashi had a vision. She saw all the world dead. She was frightened, but at the same time, she knew that she could save the world. Her powers could overcome the effects of the nuclear bomb. She concentrated on her powers and saw how she could save the world. Suddenly, she started to levitate. Her eyes were white, and she used her powers to control the earthquake and the tsunamis. She stopped flying and everything came back to normal. Miniashi died but she saved the world.
